

La Cabane

The crowd opens with Aunt Polly crossing the fence in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom crosses fence at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly announces and reads a notice from the village in which every boy has to get a haircut. Tom's half brother, that himself to disguise his Tom goes out of the house following the streets of St. Petersburg. Tom and the new arrival eventually closes the windows all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his disheveled clothes and wonders to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.

La cabane means shelter and this place is warm, cute, and very cozy! Perfect for winter like this. I went there for lunch and took hours with all the melting and talking. It's quite a sociable and relaxing dining to do with friends, family, or date. The staff was friendly and helpful and the food was delicious.
