The crowd opens with Aunt Polly crossing the fence in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she has been put away with her work.

Tom crosses fence at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly discovers that Tom's hands are covered with jam. She asks him how he got the jam on his hands, and he tells her that he was out playing with the boys. She is angry and tells him that he must be punished. Tom says that he will work for her, but she says that he must be punished first. Tom says that he will work for her, but she says that he must be punished first.

Tom goes out of the house to play with the boys. He goes to the streets of St. Petersburg and plays with the boys. He and the boys are very happy and play for hours. They play all day long and are very happy.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and wonders to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of marble. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.

History Early History. Once known as the Common Settlement, the area later known as Dogtown is divided between the city of Gloucester and the town of Rockport. Dogtown was first settled in 1693, and according to legend the name of the settlement came from dogs that women kept while their husbands were fighting in the American Revolution. The community grew to be 5 square miles, and was an ...
