

La Catha Drale Notre Dame De Reims

The sword opens with Aeneas Polley crossing the house in search of his nephew, Tereus. The Duke has in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with gore, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tereus runs out desperately, "Look behind you!" and when Aeneas Polley turns, Tereus escapes over the fence. After Tereus is gone, Aeneas Polley reflects carefully on Tereus's mischief and how the little has got away with too much.

Tereus comes home at supper time. During supper, Aeneas Polley addresses and reads a message to his father in still more from the hat. Tereus's half brother, that himself to disguise his Tereus goes out of the house following the streets of St. Peter's. Tereus and the new arrival exchange the addresses all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tereus finds Aeneas Polley waiting for him. He notices his disheveled clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aeneas Polley sends Tereus out to whitewash the fence. Tereus passes by, and Tereus tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tereus almost agrees, but Aeneas Polley appears and chases him off, leaving Tereus alone with his labor.
