

La Cavale

The sword opens with Aunt Polly crossing the fence in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with his work.

Tom crosses fence at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly discovers that Tom's hands are covered with jam. She asks him how he got the jam on his hands, and he tells her that he was out of the house. Aunt Polly is still angry from the last time Tom was out of the house, but she lets him go. Tom's half brother, Sid, tells her that Tom is a liar and that he should be whipped.

Tom goes out of the house to play the streets of St. Petersburg. He and the new arrival, Huckleberry Finn, play a game of hide-and-seek. They chase the swallows all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and decides to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.

Accueil - La Cavale

La Cavale reflects its owner Paul Dubrule's wish to create an exceptional wine center in the heart of the Natural Regional Park of the Luberon. Designed by architect Jean-Michel Wilmotte and built stone by stone by Les Compagnons du Devoir (a traditional French fraternity of craftsmen), La Cavale makes „sharing“ its priority.
